

RETAIL MOBILE AND ONLINE BANKING AGREEMENT

As used in this Retail Mobile and Online Banking Agreement ("Agreement"), the words "we", "our", "us" and "Firsttrust" mean Firsttrust Bank. "You" and "your" refer to the accountholder(s) shown on the account signature card or other authorizing document and designated by you to use Retail Online Banking ("Online Banking") under this Agreement and anyone else authorized by that accountholder to perform transactions or exercise control over the accountholder's funds through Online Banking. "Account" or "accounts" means your account or accounts at Firsttrust. "Electronic funds transfers" means pre-authorized transactions and transfers to and from your account(s) using Online Banking. "Online Banking Services" ("Service" or "Services") means the services provided pursuant to this Agreement including the Bill Payment Service ("Bill Pay"), and Person-to-Person Payments Payment Transfer Feature ("Pay Other People"), and other Services which may be made available to you in the future.

You hereby request that Firsttrust permit you to access your eligible accounts and services using Online Banking via firsttrust.com ("Website"). This Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions governing the use of Online Banking. The individual terms and conditions of your account(s) shall continue to apply in all respects. Such terms and conditions are outlined in Firsttrust's Retail Account Agreement, Funds Availability and Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) Disclosure, Retail Banking Fee Schedule and Truth-in-Savings Disclosure, as they may be revised from time to time. These documents are provided to you at the time of account opening or available upon request as well as the Revolving Credit Account Agreement and Disclosure Statement.

You understand that by enrolling and by using Online Banking, you agree to be bound by the terms and conditions provided in this Agreement, Bill Payment Service Agreement, Pay Other People Terms and Conditions, or any other agreement governing your account or an account related service, which occurs over the Internet as such agreements may be amended from time to time. You agree that electronic pages, such as the pages of the Firsttrust Website and Online Banking, used with your Login ID and Password, are the legal equivalent of hard copy written documents. You agree that your "clicking" on any "buttons" stating "I agree", "Accept", or "buttons" with similar intent, shall have the same legal effect as if you had placed your signature by hand on hard copy versions of such electronic pages. By clicking on such buttons you agree to be legally bound by the content on any such pages. You are encouraged to download or print for your future reference copies of all relevant electronic pages from the Firsttrust Website.

1. Registration, Access and Services.

After you complete and submit your information through the Online Banking Registration process ("Application") and accept the Terms and Conditions of this Agreement, you may be automatically enrolled and receive onscreen instructions or you may receive email confirmation of your enrollment application and further instructions when your registration is approved, including instructions for multi-factor authentication, before you access Online Banking.

We undertake no obligation to monitor transactions through Online Banking to determine that they are made on behalf of the accountholder. We are authorized to accept instructions from any person using your Login ID and Password to conduct Online Banking transactions.

To use Online Banking, you must have at least one checking account, savings account, or a supported loan type with us, access to Internet service, and an email address.

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, you can use Online Banking to check the balance of your eligible account(s), view account histories, check images and account statements, transfer funds between your accounts, order checks, make stop payment requests, send money to people you choose using Pay Other People, pay bills from your Firsttrust accounts in the amounts and on the dates you request if you have enrolled in Bill Pay, as well as perform other services as may be made available to you from time to time. Balance and activity information is available in accordance with our usual procedures. You shall have no right to reverse, adjust or revoke an instruction after it is received by us, except by mutual agreement between you and us. Your ability to transfer funds from your savings and money market accounts may be limited by federal law. Refer to the Retail Account Agreement, Funds Availability and Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) Disclosure for details. Transfers regarding your line of credit are governed by the Revolving Credit Account Agreement and Disclosure Statement.

If you established an account that requires two or more signatures any one of the accountholders acting alone may perform transactions on such account. You agree by signing up for Online Banking services that any one signatory may transact business on such account and hold us harmless and indemnify us for any activity performed by any one signatory on the account.

With respect to Bill Pay, you can choose which checking accounts you wish to debit for your bill payments. The actual payment of such bills is performed by an independent third party, CheckFree Services Corporation, and the procedure is set forth in the Terms and Conditions of Bill Pay.

As for Pay Other People, if you have multiple checking accounts, you can manage your default receiving accounts tied to your phone number or email address within the settings section of Pay Other People. The actual funds transfer is performed by an independent third party, Neural Payments, and the procedure is set forth in the Terms and Conditions of the Pay Other People.

2. Hours of Access.

You can use Online Banking seven days a week, twenty-four hours a day, except when scheduled or unscheduled interruptions occur. Occasionally some or all Online Banking Services may not be available due to scheduled Online Banking maintenance or regularly scheduled computer hosting down times. However, during such regularly scheduled intervals you may be able to continue to enter transactions and your records will be updated when the system maintenance or host down time is completed. Subsequent transactions will be based on such updated records. Please note that transactions entered during such intervals may be considered by us to have been made on the next business day. Each day is a business day except Saturday, Sunday and other days the Federal Reserve Bank is closed as well as any bank holidays. We agree to post notice of any scheduled extended periods of non-availability (as determined in our sole discretion) on the Website.

3. Password Security.

You should keep your Password absolutely confidential to ensure Online Banking access security to your accounts. You may change your Password at any time and are encouraged to do so periodically and especially when you discontinue the authority of another person to use your Password. You agree to maintain the highest level of security with regard to the Password you choose. You also agree that a Login ID and Password is a commercially reasonable security procedure to verify the authenticity of any instruction, transfer or other transaction relating to any account of yours delivered to Firsttrust via computer.

You understand that such security is your sole responsibility. If you do not keep your Password confidential and provide your Password to any other person, any transaction performed by such person is a transaction authorized by you. Where you have authorized any other person to use your Password in any manner, your authorization shall be considered by us to be unlimited in amount, manner and duration and includes any transactions you did not intend. You agree that the use of your Password will have the same effect as your signature authorizing any transaction. No one representing Firsttrust shall ever ask you for your Password.

Certain limitations are imposed on the number of unsuccessful attempts allowed in connection with the use of your Password. These limitations are not revealed for security reasons, but your access to Online Banking could be revoked. To re-establish your authorization to use Online Banking, you will receive a Secure Access Code. You can select to receive this code through an automated phone call, a text or email. Since this code will be sent to information we have currently on file, it is your responsibility to ensure that we have your most current information. For security purposes, we recommend that you create a Password as defined by the onscreen Password criteria. Your Login ID and Password should not be associated with any commonly known personal identification, such as social security numbers, address, date of birth or names of children, and should be memorized rather than written down.

We assume no responsibility, and you agree that no such responsibility shall attach to us, to discover, audit, or report to you any possible breach in security or use of any Password established for access to your accounts. You agree to promptly notify us by phone of any security compromise, or potential security compromise, of any Password.

4. Security.

You understand the importance of your role in preventing misuse of your account(s) through Online Banking, and you agree to promptly examine the periodic statement for each of your account(s) as soon as you receive it. You agree to protect the confidentiality of your account(s) and account number(s), and your personal identification information, including the number of your VISA® Debit or ATM Card. You understand that personal identification information by itself or together with information related to your account(s) may allow unauthorized entry and access to your account(s). It is recommended that you disable or not use the password save function of your Online browser as this only increases the risk of an unauthorized person accessing your information or performing unauthorized transactions. Data transferred via Online Banking is encrypted in an effort to provide transmission security. Online Banking utilizes identification technology to verify that the receiver of Online Banking transmissions can be appropriately identified by the sender. Notwithstanding our efforts to ensure that Online Banking is secure, you acknowledge that the Internet is inherently insecure and that all data transfers, including electronic mail, occur openly on the Internet and can potentially be monitored or read by others. You assume all responsibilities for and all risks of loss from your providing personal information, including your Login ID and Password to any third party website that spoofs or otherwise imitates Online Banking, or by linking to third party websites from unauthorized email, and you hereby release us from all liabilities and obligations in connections with such actions by you.

During your use of Online Banking, we will pass a "cookie" to your browser to identify you. We do not (and cannot) use our cookies to obtain new information about you. A cookie is security data given to a browser by a web server and returned by the browser on subsequent transmissions to identify the user and encryption information. When you log onto Online Banking, this cookie enables us to process multiple transactions during the session without you having to reenter your Login ID and Password for each individual transaction.

After a predetermined amount of time set by our security system or when you log off, the session cookie is no longer accepted and your Password must be reentered. A new cookie is used for each session, so that no one can use the cookie to access your account.

5. Equipment.

To utilize Online Banking Services you must have an appropriate Internet enabled device (referred to as "Equipment") that meets the following specifications as well as any upgrade of the Services required by us in the future in order to be able to interface with Firsttrust's website. Your Equipment must have an operating system, Internet connection and a web browser meeting the minimum requirements outlined on our Website. We are not responsible for errors or delays or your inability to access the Services caused by your Equipment or software. You understand and agree that at your expense it is your sole responsibility to obtain, install, operate and maintain the Equipment in accordance with the instructions of the Equipment manufacturer and to obtain the necessary Internet communications and Online Service Provider of your choice. This includes your responsibility to ensure the ability of the Equipment to accurately process data, including leap year calculations, and any time change with regard to daylight savings time and standard time. We are not responsible for errors or delays or your inability to access the Services caused by your Equipment, software or communications provider. You assume sole responsibility for any and all loss, damage or injury arising with respect to any failure of the Equipment, telephone line(s) or online access and hereby release, and agree to indemnify and hold Firsttrust harmless in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, because of your failure to utilize the Equipment and/or the failure of the Equipment to properly access Firsttrust's Website, or process the data to use Online Banking. You are responsible for maintaining the Equipment and software so that others cannot access your personal identification or financial information. We are not responsible for the cost of upgrading your Equipment or software to stay current with Online Banking Services nor are we responsible in any circumstances for any damage to your Equipment, software (including any software provided by Firsttrust or any of its suppliers) or the data resident thereon.

6. Transmission of Instructions.

Firsttrust agrees to use its best efforts to act upon all instructions received via Online Banking with regard to your account(s) and to use any means that Firsttrust, in its sole discretion, may consider suitable for the transmission of funds transfer requests, or other Services provided by Firsttrust through Online Banking. You assume full and sole responsibility for all authorized requests and instructions made via Online Banking with regard to your account(s).

We may, at our sole option (but not obligation), verify instructions by calling you at the telephone number(s) specified by you on the Application. You may change this telephone number(s) by updating it via My Profile in online banking system. You agree that you shall be solely responsible for liability, loss, or damage, if any, resulting from Firsttrust's actions, directly or indirectly, in accordance with requests and instructions received by Firsttrust via Online Banking when access to your account(s) is gained via Online Banking by use of your Password and you further indemnify and forever hold harmless Firsttrust from any and all such liability, loss or damage. You authorize us to honor and act upon all requests and instructions, which we receive via Online Banking with regard to your account(s). You agree to assign no responsibility whatsoever to us beyond the duty to exercise ordinary care, and you agree that we shall be conclusively deemed to have exercised ordinary care when we follow the instructions received via Online Banking and pursuant to the procedures stated therein. You agree to release Firsttrust from responsibility or liability for any inaccuracy, interruption, delay or failure in transmission. Our sole responsibility for an error in a transfer or transaction will be to correct the error, but in no case shall we be liable for any indirect, special or consequential, economic or other damages.

7. Order of Payments, Transfers and Other Withdrawals.

If your account has insufficient available funds (including, if applicable, funds available in accordance with our Discretionary Overdraft Privilege Policy) to perform all electronic funds transfers you have requested for a given business day, then:

- (a) Electronic funds transfers involving disbursements, like ATM withdrawals or VISA[®] Debit Card purchases will have priority up to the amount of available funds in your account.
- (b) Electronic funds transfers initiated through Online Banking which would result in an overdraft of your account may, at our discretion, be cancelled and
- (c) In the event that electronic funds transfers initiated through Online Banking, which would result in an overdraft of your account are not cancelled, overdraft charges may be assessed pursuant to the terms of the then current Retail Banking Fee Schedule for that account.

Refer to the Retail Account Agreement, Funds Availability, and Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) Disclosure for additional information regarding the priority for processing payments, transfers and withdrawals to your account.

8. Stop Payment Requests.

You may only initiate stop payment requests online via Online Banking for paper checks that you have written (non-electronically) on your account(s). We may take up to twenty-four (24) hours to determine if we can act on a stop payment request. If you initiate a stop payment request on a day that is not a business day, the request will not be considered until the next succeeding business day, and then we may take up to twenty-four (24) hours to determine if we can act on a stop payment request. To be effective, you must tell us the exact amount of the check and the check number. You should also tell us such other information as we may require such as the date of the check, name of payee and the information that is on the bottom of the check. If a check you wrote will be converted to an ACH payment, your stop payment request must be received by us so that we have a reasonable opportunity to act on it before we receive the ACH entry to charge your account. You will incur stop payment charges as disclosed in the current Retail Banking Fee Schedule for the applicable account.

9. Fees and Charges.

You agree to pay the fees and charges as set forth in the then current Retail Banking Fee Schedule for your use of Services. You authorize us to charge your account(s) for the charges or transaction fees that are charged by us for Services currently offered or those that may be offered in the future. You are also responsible for Internet communications and Internet service fees incurred in connection with your use of Online Banking.

10. Periodic Statements.

You will not receive a separate Online Banking statement. Transfers to and from your accounts using Online Banking will appear on the respective periodic statements for your account(s). You may elect to receive your statement electronically through Online Banking by executing an Online Statement Service Addendum and Disclosure available on Online Banking, or may be required to receive your statement electronically based on the type of account you select. If you receive your statement electronically, we will notify you by using the email address in Online Banking to let you know when a new statement is available and no paper statement will be issued.

11. Change in Terms.

We may change any term of this Agreement at any time. If the change would result in increased fees for any Online Banking service, increased liability for you, fewer types of available electronic funds transfers, or stricter limitations on the frequency or dollar amount of transfers, we agree to give you notice at least 30 days before the effective date of any such change, unless an immediate change is necessary to maintain the security of an account or our electronic funds transfer system. We will post any required notice of the change in terms on the Website or forward it to you by email or by postal mail. If advance notice of the change is not required, and disclosure does not jeopardize the security of the account(s) or our electronic funds transfer system, we will notify you of the change in terms within 30 days after the change becomes effective. This Agreement as revised will be posted on Online Banking. The revised Agreement will supersede the affected terms and conditions of this Agreement and shall apply to any activity or transaction previously or hereafter taken by you in connection with such Service, except that new fees and charges shall only apply prospectively. Your continued use of any, or all, of the subject Services indicates your acceptance of the change in terms. We reserve the right to waive, reduce or reverse charges or fees in individual situations. You acknowledge and agree that changes to fees applicable to specific accounts are governed by the then current Retail Banking Fee Schedule.

12. Our Liability for Failure to Make a Transfer or to Deliver an Electronic Account Alerts ("Alerts").

If we do not complete a transfer to or from your account on time or in the correct amount, or send an email or SMS alert to you (which are electronic notifications transmitted per your request) when properly instructed by you, we will be liable for your losses or damages. However, there are some exceptions. We will not be liable for instance, if:

- (a) Through no fault of ours, you do not have enough money in your account plus any available overdraft protection and/or Discretionary Overdraft Privilege limit to make the transfer;
- (b) The transfer would go over the credit limit on any credit arrangement set up to cover overdrafts or the credit limit on an established line of credit;
- (c) Any electronic terminal, other equipment, software, telecommunications device or system, or any part of Online Banking's electronic funds transfer system is not working properly and you know about the breakdown when you started the transfer or other transaction;
- (d) Circumstances beyond our control (such as fire, flood, interruption in telephone service or other problems) prevent the transfer, despite reasonable precautions that we have taken;
- (e) The funds in your account are subject to legal process;
- (f) The transaction will exceed the transaction limitations on your account, if any;
- (g) Your account is closed or it has been frozen;
- (h) We have a reason to believe that the transaction requested is unauthorized, suspicious or fraudulent or violates a law or regulation;
- (i) You have not properly followed the onscreen instructions for using Online Banking or otherwise enter incorrect information into Online Banking and/or Bill Pay;
- (j) CheckFree Services Corporation is liable under the Terms and Conditions of Bill Pay,
- (k) Your operating system was not functioning properly;
- (l) You use or rely on the contents of any Alert;
- (m) You use or rely on any spam, phishing scheme or other similar communication; or
- (n) A transaction fails due to a failure of a third party service provider, through no fault of ours, to complete such transaction.

There may also be other exceptions stated in this agreement, other agreements with you or otherwise not specifically mentioned above. In any case, we shall only be liable for actual proven damages if the failure to make the transaction resulted from a bona fide error despite our procedures to avoid such errors.

13. Disclaimer of Warranty and Limitation of Liability.

We will make reasonable efforts to ensure full performance of Online Banking. We are responsible for acting only on those instructions sent through Online Banking that are actually received by us and we cannot assume responsibility for malfunctions in communications facilities not under our control that may affect the accuracy or timeliness of messages you send. Neither are we responsible for any losses or delays in transmission of instructions arising out of the use of any Online Service Provider or caused by any browser software. Firsttrust is also not responsible for any compromise of your information including but not limited to passwords and other access codes, systems, disruption of service or the processing of unauthorized transactions caused by your use of a wireless network or other unauthorized access to or alteration of your transmissions or data. Firsttrust is not responsible should you give incorrect instructions. Any information you receive from Firsttrust is believed to be reliable, however, it can only be provided on a best-efforts basis for your convenience and is not guaranteed. We do not and cannot warrant that Online Banking, Bill Pay, and/or Pay Other People will operate without errors, or that any or all Services will be available and operational at all times. You acknowledge that the continued availability of third party services is not within our control and agree that we will not be liable for any damages, loss of use, or inability to use, the Online Banking services in the event such third party services are unavailable. We will not be liable for any deficiencies in the accuracy, completeness, availability or timeliness of such information or for any decision made using this information. Although we attempt to provide accurate information on Online Banking, we make no warranty of any kind, express or implied, including any implied warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, in connection with Services provided to you under this Agreement. Our responsibility is limited to our exercise of reasonable and ordinary care. Any internal policies and procedures that we maintain are solely for our own purposes and will not impose a higher standard of care than otherwise would apply by law without such policies and procedures. Except as specifically provided in this Agreement, or otherwise required by law, you agree that our officers, directors, employees, agents or contractors are not liable for any indirect, incidental, special or consequential economic or other damages arising under or by reason of any Services or products provided under this Agreement or by reason of your use of or access to Online Banking, Bill Pay, and/or Pay Other People, including loss of profits, revenue, data or use by you or any third party, whether in an action in contract or tort or based on a warranty even if we are advised of the possibility of such damages. Further, in no event shall the liability of Firsttrust and its affiliates exceed the amounts paid by you for the services provided to you through Online Banking, Bill Pay, and/or Pay Other People.

As a condition of your use of the Services, you warrant to us that you will not use the Services for unlawful purposes; in ways which are prohibited by this Agreement or which could damage or disable the Services. You also warrant that you will not, by using networks through which you access the services, attempt to access any account for which you have no authorization or otherwise interfere with any other party's use and enjoyment of the Services. You agree to indemnify and hold us harmless from any breach of your warranty, including but not limited to any claim made by any third party that is due to or arises out of your use of our Services. Your obligation to indemnify and hold us harmless extends to any judgments, awards, settlements and costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, which stem from a breach of your warranty or any claims made by any third party which is due to or arises out of your use of our Services. Internet gambling may be illegal in the jurisdiction in which the person accessing Online Banking is located, including locations within the United States. You agree that you will only use Online Banking for legal purposes and transactions. Your obligations hereunder shall survive your termination of access or use of Online Banking or nonuse of any service, information or material.

Exercise caution when using consolidation sites. Consolidation Sites (also known as "account aggregators" or "screen scrapers") are Internet sites that provide the ability to collect on one integrated website key information about you such as bank balances, investments, and emails. For example, you may be encouraged to provide a consolidation site with your personal financial information, such as your Login ID and Password for Online Banking. YOU SHOULD NEVER PROVIDE THIS INFORMATION TO A SITE THAT YOU DO NOT RECOGNIZE AND FULLY TRUST.

We are not liable for any transactions that you initiate through a consolidation site or that are initiated through a consolidation site using your Login ID and/or Password. All transactions initiated by a consolidation site using access information you provided are considered to be authorized by you, whether or not you were aware of the specific transactions. We are also not liable for any loss of information or funds from your account that occur as a result of your use of a website that is not the valid Online Banking - even though it may appear to Firsttrust Bank's website.

If necessary, you may cancel your access or change your password for Online Banking at any time. However, we do not guarantee that this will restrict any Consolidation Sites to which you have previously given authority from accessing your bank information in the future.

14. Virus Protection.

Firsttrust cannot and does not guarantee that downloads from this site will not contain a virus or other destructive device. Additionally, you provide, request, and receive information from this site with the knowledge that such information can be intercepted and/or viewed by unknown third parties.

We are not responsible for any electronic virus or viruses, message or transfer interception in transit or related problems that you may encounter. We encourage our customers to routinely scan their PCs and diskettes using a reliable virus detection product to detect and remove any viruses. Undetected or unrepaired viruses may corrupt and destroy your programs, files and even your hardware. Additionally, you may unintentionally transmit the virus to other companies.

15. Your Liability for Unauthorized Transfers.

Tell us AT ONCE if you believe your password has been lost or stolen, or if you believe that an electronic fund transfer has been made without your permission or otherwise compromised using information from your check. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. We will require such notification to be followed up in writing. You could lose all the money in your account plus any available balance in your overdraft protection account, revolving line of credit and/or Discretionary Overdraft Privilege limit. If you tell us within 2 business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your password, you can lose no more than $50 if someone used your password without your permission.

If you do NOT tell us within 2 business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your password, and we can prove we could have stopped someone from using your password without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.

Also, if your statement shows transfers that you did not make, including those made by card, password or other means, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed or otherwise made available to you, you may not get back any money you lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time. If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we may, in our sole discretion, extend the time periods.

See the section titled "How to Contact Us" for our phone numbers and address.

However, if you use Online Banking, Bill Pay, or Pay Other People for business purposes, you assume all risk of loss for unauthorized transfers and payments, and you must establish your own internal security procedures for employees you authorize to use Online Banking and to prevent all unauthorized use by other employees or persons.

16. Error Resolution Notice in Case of Errors or Questions about Your Transactions.

In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Transfers tell us AS SOON AS YOU CAN if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer listed on the statement or receipt. See the Section titled "How to Contact Us" for our phone numbers and address. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent or made available the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared.

- (a) Tell us your name and account number (if any).
- (b) Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- (c) Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell us orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within 10 business days.

We will determine whether an error occurred within 10 business days after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 days to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will credit your account within 10 business days for the amount you think is in error so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within 10 business days, we may not credit your account.

For errors involving new accounts or foreign-initiated transactions, we may take up to 90 days to investigate your complaint or question. For new accounts, we may take up to 20 business days to credit your account for the amount you think is in error.

We will tell you the results within three business days after completing our investigation. If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

17. Your Right to Terminate.

You may cancel your use of the Services at any time by providing us with written notice by postal mail or by calling us. Your access to Online Banking will be suspended within 3 business days of our receipt of your written instructions to cancel the Service. You will remain responsible for all outstanding fees and charges incurred prior to the date of cancellation.

18. Our Right to Terminate.

You agree that we can terminate or limit your access to Services for any of the following reasons:

- (a) Immediately without prior notice, if you have insufficient funds in any one of your accounts; provided, however Service may be reinstated, in our sole discretion, once sufficient funds are available to cover any fees, pending transfers and debits;
- (b) Immediately without prior notice if you misuse Services or otherwise violate the provisions of this Agreement;
- (c) Immediately without prior notice if the checking account which you designated for Bill Pay is closed and you have not designated an alternative Firsttrust checking account;
- (d) immediately without prior notice after one hundred eighty (180) days of inactivity; or

If the Services are terminated, you understand that any scheduled payment or other transactions may not be made as scheduled and Firsttrust shall not be liable for any loss or damage as a result of same. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE BILL PAY SERVICE

1. Service Definitions.

"Service" means the Bill Pay Service offered by Firsttrust Bank, through CheckFree Services Corporation.

"Agreement" means these Terms and Conditions of the bill payment service.

"Payee" is the person or entity to which you wish a bill payment to be directed or is the person or entity from which you receive electronic bills, as the case may be.

"Payment Instruction" is the information provided by you to the Service for a bill payment to be made to the Payee (such as, but not limited to, Payee name, Payee account number, and Scheduled Payment Date).

"Payment Account" is the checking account from which bill payments will be debited.

"Billing Account" is the checking account from which all Service fees will be automatically debited.

"Business Day" is every Monday through Friday, excluding Federal Reserve holidays.

"Scheduled Payment Date" is the day you want your Payee to receive your bill payment and is also the day your Payment Account will be debited, unless the Scheduled Payment Date falls on a non-Business Day in which case it will be considered to be the previous Business Day.

"Due Date" is the date reflected on your Payee statement for which the payment is due. It is not the late date or grace period.

"Scheduled Payment" is a payment that has been scheduled through the Service but has not begun processing.

2. Payment Scheduling.

Transactions begin processing four (4) Business Days prior to your Scheduled Payment Date. Therefore, the application will not permit you to select a Scheduled Payment Date less than four (4) Business Days from the current date. When scheduling payments you must select a Scheduled Payment Date that is no later than the actual Due Date reflected on your Payee statement unless the Due Date falls on a non-Business Day. If the actual Due Date falls on a non-Business Day, you must select a Scheduled Payment Date that is at least one (1) Business Day before the actual Due Date. Scheduled Payment Dates should be prior to any late date or grace period.

3. The Service Guarantee.

Due to circumstances beyond the control of the Service, particularly delays in handling and posting payments by Payees or financial institutions, some transactions may take longer to be credited to your account. The Service will bear responsibility for any late payment related charges up to $50.00 should a payment post after its Due Date as long as the payment was scheduled in accordance with the guidelines described under "Payment Scheduling" in this Agreement.

4. Payment Authorization and Payment Remittance.

By providing the Service with names and account information of Payees to whom you wish to direct payments, you authorize the Service to follow the Payment Instructions that it receives through the payment system. In order to process payments more efficiently and effectively, the Service may edit or alter payment data or data formats in accordance with Payee directives.

When the Service receives a Payment Instruction, you authorize the Service to debit your Payment Account and remit funds on your behalf so that the funds arrive as close as reasonably possible to the Scheduled Payment Date designated by you. You also authorize the Service to credit your Payment Account for payments returned to the Service by the United States Postal Service or Payee, or payments remitted to you on behalf of another authorized user of the Service.

The Service will use its best efforts to make all your payments properly. However, the Service shall incur no liability and any Service Guarantee shall be void if the Service is unable to complete any payments initiated by you because of the existence of any one or more of the following circumstances:

1. If, through no fault of the Service, your Payment Account does not contain sufficient funds to complete the transaction or the transaction would exceed the credit limit of your overdraft account;
2. The payment processing center is not working properly and you know or have been advised by the Service about the malfunction before you execute the transaction;
3. You have not provided the Service with the correct Payment Account information, or the correct name, address, phone number, or account information for the Payee; and/or,
4. Circumstances beyond control of the Service (such as, but not limited to, fire, flood, or interference from an outside force) prevent the proper execution of the transaction and the Service has taken reasonable precautions to avoid those circumstances.

Provided none of the foregoing exceptions are applicable, if the Service causes an incorrect amount of funds to be removed from your Payment Account or causes funds from your Payment Account to be directed to a Payee which does not comply with your Payment Instructions, the Service shall be responsible for returning the improperly transferred funds to your Payment Account, and for directing to the proper Payee any previously misdirected transactions, and, if applicable, for any late payment related charges.

5. Payment Methods.

The Service reserves the right to select the method in which to remit funds on your behalf to your Payee. These payment methods may include, but may not be limited to, an electronic payment, an electronic to check payment, or a laser draft payment.

6. Payment Cancellation Requests.

You may cancel or edit any Scheduled Payment (including recurring payments) by following the directions within the application. There is no charge for canceling or editing a Scheduled Payment. Once the Service has begun processing a payment it cannot be cancelled or edited, therefore a stop payment request must be submitted.

7. Stop Payment Requests.

The Service's ability to process a stop payment request will depend on the payment method and whether or not a check has cleared. The Service may also not have a reasonable opportunity to act on any stop payment request after a payment has been processed. If you desire to stop any payment that has already been processed, you must contact Customer Care. Although the Service will make every effort to accommodate your request, the Service will have no liability for failing to do so. The Service may also require you to present your request in writing within fourteen (14) days. The charge for each stop payment request will be the current charge for such service as set out in the applicable fee schedule.

8. Prohibited Payments.

Payments to Payees outside of the United States or its territories are prohibited through the Service.

9. Exception Payments.

Tax payments and court ordered payments may be scheduled through the Service, however such payments are discouraged and must be scheduled at your own risk. In no event shall the Service be liable for any claims or damages resulting from your scheduling of these types of payments. The Service Guarantee as it applies to any late payment related charges is void when these types of payments are scheduled and/or processed by the Service. The Service has no obligation to research or resolve any claim resulting from an exception payment. All research and resolution for any misapplied, misposted or misdirected payments will be the sole responsibility of you and not of the Service.

10. Bill Delivery and Presentment.

It may take up to sixty (60) days, depending on the billing cycle of each Payee. The Service will notify your electronic Payee(s) as to the change in status of your account and it is your sole responsibility to make arrangements for an alternative form of bill delivery. The Service will not be responsible for presenting any electronic bills that are already in process at the time of cancellation.

Non-Delivery of electronic bill(s). You agree to hold the Service harmless should the Payee fail to deliver your statement(s). You are responsible for ensuring timely payment of all bills. Copies of previously delivered bills must be requested from the Payee directly.

RETAIL MOBILE APP TERMS & CONDITIONS

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING TERMS AND CONDITIONS (the "Agreement") CAREFULLY. THEY GOVERN YOUR ACCESS AND USE OF THE RETAIL BANKING MOBILE APP (the "Service"). In addition to this Agreement, your use of the Service is subject to the terms of the Retail Account Agreement, Funds Availability, & Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) Disclosure ("Retail Account Agreement"), the Retail Online Banking Agreement, the Mobile Remote Deposit Services Agreement and the Terms and Conditions of the Bill Pay Service, all of which are hereby incorporated by reference. Your use of the Service is also subject to any other agreements that you may have with Firsttrust with respect to a linked account. When you link an account to the Service, you do not change the existing agreements you have with Firsttrust with respect to that account. The Service is provided to you by Firsttrust Bank ("Firsttrust" or "Firsttrust Bank," references to which include Firsttrust's subsidiaries and affiliates) through its third party service provider Q2 eBanking.

1. Scope of Agreement.

This Agreement between you and Firsttrust Bank governs the use of the Service. The Service permits Firsttrust Bank customers to perform a number of banking functions on Linked Accounts, which may change from time to time. The meanings of the terms you see in italics appear in the Glossary Section at the end of this Agreement. To make this Agreement easier to understand Firsttrust also uses the following personal pronouns:

"You" and "your" means the person or persons that use or receive the Services and any joint or other authorized Linked Account holder or authorized party on the Linked Account and their successors and assignees.

"We," "us," and "our" means Firsttrust Bank and its agents, processors, affiliates, representatives, successors, and assignees.

THIS AGREEMENT CONTAINS IMPORTANT LIMITATIONS ON FIRSTTRUST'S LIABILITY AND DISCLAIMERS OF WARRANTIES. PLEASE READ IT IN ITS ENTIRETY.

2. Accepting the Agreement.

When you use the Service, you agree to be bound by the terms and conditions of the Agreement and accept them in full, including as they may be modified by Firsttrust from time to time. Any such modifications shall be posted on the Service.

3. Services; Changes to the Service.

The Service is currently configured to allow you to view the balances and activity of Linked Accounts, transfer funds between Linked Accounts, create Images of Eligible Items that you receive and Transmit to Firsttrust for deposit into a Linked Account, view nearby Firsttrust locations, and send secure messages to Firsttrust.

Features of the Service may be changed, added, or removed at any time, in Firsttrust's sole discretion. Firsttrust may withdraw or terminate the Service at any time, and may disable access to the Service for all or a segment of the Service's users.

4. Changes to Agreement.

Firsttrust may change this Agreement at any time. For example, Firsttrust may add, delete, or amend terms. We will notify you of such changes by email or through a message in the Service. You agree that your use of the Service after the effective date of such change shall constitute your consent to and agreement with such change, and shall further constitute your reaffirmation of this Agreement, as so modified.

5. Transmission, Processing and Payment.

All Images you Transmit to us using the Services must be legible and meet our requirements including hardware and software requirements such as required Mobile Devices, operating systems and camera specifications. All required hardware and software will be at your expense.

You agree to only Transmit Images of Eligible Items.

Each Image must provide all information on the front and back of the Eligible Item at the time presented to you by the drawer, including, but not limited to, information about the drawer and the paying bank that is preprinted on the Eligible Item, MICR information, signature(s), any required identification written on the front of the Eligible Item and any endorsements applied to the back of the Eligible Item. The information you Transmit to us must meet the standards established by the American National Standards Institute, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve, and any other regulatory agency, clearing house or association and contain the correct amount of the Eligible Item.

Endorsements must be made on the back of the Eligible Item within 1½ inches from the top edge, although we may accept endorsements outside this space. Your endorsement must include your signature and “MOBILE DEPOSIT TO FIRSTTRUST BANK.” Any loss we incur from a delay or processing error resulting from an irregular endorsement or other markings by you will be your responsibility.

6. Receipt of Deposits.

All Images processed for deposit through the Services will be treated as “deposits” under your current Retail Account Agreement with us and will be subject to all terms of the Retail Account Agreement. We are not responsible for any Image that we do not receive. When you successfully Transmit an Image to us, we will confirm that we have received your Image. We shall not be deemed to have received the Image for deposit until we have confirmed receipt to you. Our confirmation does not mean that your Transmission and deposit are complete or without error. All of your Images are subject to our further verification prior to being accepted for deposit and final payment after deposit.

Following receipt, we may process the Image by preparing a Substitute Check or clearing the item as an Image.

We reserve the right, at our sole and absolute discretion, to reject any Image for remote deposit into your Linked Account.

7. Storage and Destruction of Eligible Items.

After you receive confirmation that we have received an Image, you agree to securely store the Eligible Item for 45 days after Transmission and make the Eligible Item accessible to us at our request. Upon our request from time to time, you will deliver to us within 5 Business Days, at your expense, the requested Eligible Item in your possession. If not provided in a timely manner, such amount will be reversed from your Linked Account(s). Promptly after such period expires, you must destroy the Eligible Item by first marking it “VOID” and then destroying it by cross-cut shredding or another commercially acceptable means of destruction. After destruction of an Eligible item, the Image will be the sole evidence of the Eligible Item.

You agree that you will never re-present the Eligible Item or a copy, facsimile, or Image of the Eligible Item. You understand that you are responsible if anyone is asked to make a payment based on an Eligible Item that has already been paid.

8. Returned Deposits.

Any credit to your Linked Account for Eligible Items deposited using the Services is provisional. If Eligible Items deposited through the Services are dishonored, rejected or otherwise returned unpaid by the drawee bank, or are rejected or returned by a clearing agent or collecting bank, for any reason, including, but not limited to, issues relating to the quality of the Image, you agree that the Eligible Item will not be returned to you (because you will have destroyed or maintained possession of the Eligible Item), but that we may charge back the amount of the Eligible Item and provide you with an Image of the Eligible Item, a paper reproduction of the Eligible Item or a Substitute Check. You will reimburse us for all loss, cost, damage or expense caused by or relating to the processing of the returned Eligible Item. Without our approval, you shall not attempt to deposit or otherwise negotiate an Eligible Item if it has been charged back to you.

Subject to the terms of the Retail Account Agreement and applicable law, we may debit any of your accounts (regardless of whether such accounts are Linked Accounts) to obtain payment for any Eligible Item that has been rejected or returned, for any adjustment related to such item or for any warranty claim related to such item, whether or not the rejection, return, adjustment or warranty claim was made timely.

9. Your Warranties.

You make the following warranties and representations with respect to each Image:

- Each Image is a true and accurate rendition of the front and back of the Eligible Item, without any alteration, and the drawer of the Eligible Item has no defense against payment of the Eligible Item.
- The amount, payee(s), signature(s), and endorsement(s) on the Image and on the Eligible Item are legible, genuine, and accurate.
- You will not deposit or otherwise endorse to a third party the Eligible Item and no person will receive a transfer, presentment, or return of, or otherwise be charged for, the Eligible Item or a paper or electronic representation of the Eligible Item such that the person will be asked to make payment based on an item that has already been paid.
- There are no other duplicate Images of the Eligible Item.
- The Eligible Item was authorized by the drawer in the amount stated on the Eligible Item and to the payee(s) stated on the Eligible Item.
- You are authorized to enforce and obtain payment of the Eligible Item.

With respect to each Image, you make to us all representations and warranties that we make or are deemed to make to any party pursuant to law, regulation or clearinghouse rule. You agree that files and Images transmitted to us will contain no viruses or any other disabling features that may have an adverse impact on our network, data, or related systems.

With respect to each Image and your use of the Services in general, you agree to comply with all procedures published by us, which can be accessed within the Service and/or at firsttrust.com.
